CELEBRATING MY CULTURE IS BEAUTIFUL 365

with Novello Penick

Leeza Kress (born Philippines), is a resident of Lake Mary Florida. Married to Jack Kress and is blessed with her 33-year-old son, Raniel. She went to College in Manila, Philippines followed with online classes in the US. Leeza migrated to America in 1992.

Leeza is the eldest of 5 siblings. After the death of both of her parents she and her sister Anna Cope supported the education of all their nieces and nephews. At an early age, Leeza learned the art of leather craft making leather bags, wallets, belts etc. to help support the family. Her talent also includes cooking and singing.

Leeza's strong faith in God, resilience, optimism, persistence and hard work are just few of her attributes that led to her success. Leeza's 27 years in Hospitality began as a Restaurant server and was promoted to Supervisor/Manager. Later becoming the Director of Sales and Catering in Private Country Clubs and Hotels. She was also an Event Planner for many Social Events.

At the beginning, her job application was turned down due to lack of experience. She encouraged the Company to reconsider and give her a chance to prove her talents and to show how good and fast she can be trained. She was considered being one of The Best Employees. Currently, Leeza works with Home Health Care Services and she is also the PM International Manager and a Distributor of Lifeline Products.

She has a passion on helping people, Volunteer in the Community includes Churches and fundraising both in US and Philippines. Supporting "Our Children of Hope" is just one of them. She will be leading a Dinner and Live Concert on June 20, 2020 for the above cause. Leeza wants to inspire people to share their blessings, time and talents. She helps promote Philippine Culture and tradition with the help of all the talents she had acquired through the years. She manages to do all of these because she always put GOD first. Family second and Career last.
